MONIQUE KALKMAN

TEAM QUICKIE

Monique is hands down the best female wheelchair tennis player in the world. An outstanding all-around teenage Dutch athlete before a tumor and the resulting surgery left her a partial paraplegic at the age of 14, Monique today has an awesome record on the wheelchair tennis circuit. Her mobility on the court combined with her incredible strength and shot precision make her feared by all. "I train as hard as I can, so I will be the most disciplined, fit and all-around player on the court." Monique's accomplishments include the following:

TENNIS

- | #1 world ranked women's singles player
- | 5-time US Open Singles and Doubles Champion, including 1995 titles
- | 7-time World Cup Team winner, Dutch team
- | 1994 Masters Tournament Champion
- | 1992 Barcelona Paralympic Games gold medalist, singles and doubles
- | 1992-1994 International Wheelchair Tennis Federation world champion
- | 1988 Seoul Paralympic Games silver medalist
- | 1984 British Paralympic Games gold and bronze medalist
- | 1992-1993 Sportswoman of the Year, Alphen
- | 1992 Citizen of Honor, Alphen
- | 1992, 1994 Sportswoman of the Year, Amsterdam
